

Editors' Remarks

An General Summary*by Rudyard Kipling*

We are very slightly changed
From the semi-apes who ranged
India's Prehistoric clay;
He that drew the longest bow
Ran his brother down, you know,
As we run men down to-today

"Dowb," the first of all his race,
Met the Mammoth face to face
On the lake or in the cave:
Stole the steadiest canoe,
Ate the quarry others slew,
Died -- and took the finest grave.

When they scratched the reindeer-bone,
Some one made the sketch his own,
Filched it from the artist -- then,
Even in those early days,
Won a simple Viceroy's praise
Through the toil of other men.
Ere they hewed the Sphinx's visage
Favouritism governed kissage,
Even as it does in this age.

Who shall doubt "the secret hid
Under Cheops' pyramid"
Was that the contractor did
Cheops out of several millions?
Or that Joseph's sudden rise
To Comptroller of Supplies
Was a fraud of monstrous size
On King Pharaoh's swart Civilians?

Thus, the artless songs I sing
Do not deal with anything
New or never said before.
As it was in the beginning
Is to-day official sinning,
And shall be for evermore!

Rudyard Kipling (1809-1849)*

♦ Joseph Rudyard Kipling (30 December 1865 – 18 January 1936) was an English short-story writer, poet, and novelist. He is chiefly remembered for his tales and poems of British soldiers in India and his tales for children. He was born in Bombay, in the Bombay Presidency of British India, and was taken by his family to England when he was five years old. Kipling is best known for his works of fiction, including The Jungle Book (a collection of stories, which includes and his poems, including "Mandalay" (1890), "Gunga Din" (1890), "The Gods of the Copybook Headings" (1919), "The White Man's Burden" (1899), and "If—" (1910). He is regarded as a major "innovator in the art of the short story"; his children's books are enduring classics of children's literature; and his best works are said to exhibit "a versatile and luminous narrative gift".

This 17th volume No.5 consists of four topical parts, namely, Part A: Mathematical and Computer Modelling, Part B: Computer and Information Technologies, Part C: Operation Research and Decision Making and Part D: Nature Phenomena and Innovative Engineering. These parts have a particular page numbering. References should include the symbols belonging to the part of the journal issue (A,B,C or D) and the pages of the paper quoted. (e.g.: ... 17(5C) 77-89) We are planning to expand CMNT topics within the scope of its scientific interests. Our journal policy is directed to fundamental and applied scientific researches, innovative technologies and industry, which is the fundamentals of the full-scale multi-disciplinary modelling and simulation. This edition is the continuation of our publishing activities. We hope our journal will be of interest for research community and professionals. We are open for collaboration both in the research field and publishing. We hope that the journal's contributors will consider collaboration with the Editorial Board as useful and constructive.
